3/22/64

O Almighty and Eternal God we lift our hearts and minds unto thee in prayer. We Rejoice O Lord, that on this day our savior, Jesus Christ, entered Jerusalem amidst the praise and honor of men. We rejoice, O Lord, that for this one moment men gave the due honor to him who came to save. We thank thee, O Lord, for all this day meant to him - and all it means to us.

O God, grant us hearts to know thee: give us that sensitivity and insight that allows us to delve below the temporary victory to the real conflict. Help us, O Lord, to see our part in that conflict. Help us to see ourselves among that crowd - that welcomed him triumphantly - but really did not want him. In this Holy Week, our Father, we pray for Thy Holy Spirit: that as we reenact our Lord's passion we may become ever more Faithful Christians.

O Eternal God, we pray for peace. We ask thy blessing upon men everywhere who strive for peace and good will. Bless, O Lord, the United Nations as it seeks to express the unity of all men. Bless, O Lord, our nation as it seeks to lead the world in freedom and liberty. Be with those who oppose us: grant them responsibility and the courage to see the truth. Help us all so to live - as to bring about thy kingdom on earth.

On this day, our Father, we humbly pray for the hungry and cold throughout the world. Be with those who are denied the right to live in security + freedom from anxiety. Be with those who are denied their dignity by their Fellowmen. O Thou, who art all good + all wise we pray For the sick of our own numbes. Be with them, granting them the solace of Thy Holy Spirit. - Roger Parsms

And O Lord, grant us, thy humble servants, on this day a vision of thyself - and the work thou wouldst have Give us the courage of Faith - and the humility to men as we have been served.

This we pray in the name of Jesus Christ - who liveth and with thee and the Holy Spirit. Now and Forever. Amen Lord's Prayer
